Make broken objects whole. Read the minds of total strangers. Float a table in mid-air. Change small bills into big ones. Have solid objects vanish into thin air, then just as suddenly reappear. Create a seemingly awesome hypnotic trance. produce smoke without fire. From his own amazing repertoire and from the specialties of the great magicians of all time, John Scarne explains and simplifies the how-to of 200 master deceptions, super tricks that can be done without prior skill, training or special equipment.
