ca. 13,5 x 20 cm, 329 Seiten, Dover Publications INC., New York, cop. 1963, broschiert Aus der englischen Beschreibung: John Mulholland has long been recognized as one of the top magicians of the world. This book is the distillation of the knowledge and techniques of a lifetime spent learning and practising the art of magic and illusion. Its purpose is to teach effective magic which can be learned without difficulty. Some of the tricks described can be shown in minutes after reading the text. Other tricks revealed here can be learned in an hour, or at most a few hours of rehearsal. Where equipment is required, full instructions are given so that the reader can make everything that is needed.
