"Hey, you squirted mustard on my shirt!"

That's what they always say to the classic mustard bottle gag even though it's just a yellow string. But now the old gag is just the beginning to something new and original in children's entertainment.

Produktinformation

It's topsy turvy ketchup and mustard bottles! But wait, this version isn't like anything you've ever seen in the world of magic. David Allen's new method allows the performer to place those recognizable squirt bottles under potato chip cans and produce laughs and amazement from an audience. This new method will even let the child choose which bottle they will use.
