A collection of magical presentations./ ca. 14,5 x 22,5 cm, 90 S., Clandestine Productions, 1997, fest gebunden, Schutzumschlag Aus der englischen Beschreibung: You are cordially invited to watch a borrowed book of matches burst into flames without touching it. Unlock a car of any make by merely pointing at it. Tangle a rubber band so impossibly Mobius himself would give you a funny look. Learn a false shuffle and bridge you'll actually use. Drop a borrowed coin into your drink, bringing the liquid to a boiling froth, then spoon out the coin severely bent like a used bottle cap. Turn a pack of cards to solid stone, splitting like a rock when you drop it. Automatically switch decks under the nose of your audience, using subtlety rather than sleight-of-hand. Pluck the petals from a daisy, ending on she loves me not, then blow on the flower, making one petal reappear - she loves me. See your dog dine happily on a piece of bread when someone calls it a food he likes, only to snub it when the fellow calls it a food he dislikes. Enjoy twenty-one magical presentations in all!
