ca. 14 x 22 cm, 68 S., A Goodlife Publication, 1979, gebunden This is the fourth volume in a parade of entertaining, commercial close-up, mental and cabaret magic. After 25 years Roy Johnson has dedicated to 'retire', to take things easy. He promises that this is his last book. We wonder. We wonder how long a man with the talent for producing workable effective magic can relax. Within these pages will be found clever ideas and adaptations, among them the delightful presentation for the classic Chinese Sticks which won acclaim and attracted Paul Daniels to use it for his Royal Variety Performance at the London Palladium in 1978.
