Magic by over 40 magicians! Over 100 items! 166 Pages! / ca. 22 x 28,5 cm, 166 S., USA 1991, gebunden The "Card to Wallet" effect is one of the strongest possible effects with cards. Properly performed, it is incomprehensible to spectators. The trick has been featured by famous magical entertainers and technicians alike. Card to Wallet-The Book is devoted exclusively to this classic magic effect! If you plan to buy a wallet the book is an excellent source of information to inform and aid you in your decision. If you already own one or more wallets, you will find this book a treasure trove of fresh ideas and methods for the trick! The magic ranges from easy to do methods to more challenging items. Nine chapters!! Scores of beautiful line drawings by Richard Bartram, Jr. illustrate the text. If you are at all interested in card magic, you must have this book! To paraphrase an old magical adage, "The wealest place to reveal a selected card is in the deck." The creator of that phrase might well have had the "Card to Wallet" in mind. A wide cross section of present day methods! Technical methods as well as presentational approaches! Each item described is either a different method or a different routine! Tricks with wallets bearing the names of Bendix, Himber, Mullica, Le Paul, plus many others. Many excellent ideas!
