Aus der englischen Beschreibung: "rip. tear. restore." "The ultimate presentation for the ultimate anytime anywhere close-up illusion" "includes: infusion, hyperinfusion, puncture, black holes" "Andrew Mayne, the creator of GHOSTBILLS and HYPERCARDS presents another incredible impromptu close-up illusion. Borrow a bill from a spectator, give it a tear, stab your finger through the center of the bill, violently rip it out - and then restore it right before their eyes! -> Use any bill without any advance set-up! -> No switches or gimmicks! -> Spectators can inspect the bill before and after! INFUSION teaches you the handling for the basic effect along with two variations including a lightning fast version. You'll also learn Andrew Mayne's BLACK HOLES illusion where you cause your finger to warp space and travel across the universe on a sheet of paper. INFUSION - A complete penetration and mutilated bill routine. HYPER INFUSION - A lightning fast version of the effect. PUNCTURE - An impromptu clothing penetration. BLACK HOLES - Travel interstellar distances with your finger!"
