This is an enchanting box of surprises, drawn from the fascinating and hyperbolical history of magic and conjuring. Open the box to discover an astounding compendium of rare graphics and picture cards, amazing tricks and illusions juggling and jokes. Ever wanted to read minds? Or be a contortionist? Anything is possible with this unique collection of rare magical ephemera, which explores the world of mystery and illusion. The box contains: Heathcote Williams on the extraordinary never-before-told story of CHARLES DICKENS, CONJUROR--a 24-page booklet. 20 full color cards, of which 10 have magic tricks on the reverse, and 8 two-color cards. A 24-page booklet with full-color illustrations about magic and conjuring, a pamphlet on how to be a contortionist, a portable Ouija Board, a set of magical posters, cards, die-cut reproductions of magical puzzles, and much more. This is the perfect gift for those involved in magic...and tend to be extremely hard to buy for. A beautiful and charming addition to any collection.
