The memoirs and mysteries of Edwin the Magician. / 21 x 26 cm, 310 S., Edwin's Magic Arts, Bideford, England, cop.1989, gebunden Aus der englischen Beschreibung: Edwin's Magic - The continuing story to make you say: "EDWIN IS MAGIC". Starting in the 1960's and already an established magic dealer, this tells how seized opportunities, luck and hard graft turned a big business into an even more succesful one. Because of the very nature of his specialised trade 'selling tricks to magicians', Edwin's path was not an easy one, and along the way you will meet and enjoy many 'tales out of school' as he has encounters with Tommy Cooper, Bob Harbin, Jeff Atkins, Paul Daniels, Bill Larsen and very many others. There's many a chortle, many a smile and sometimes a tear. You'll read why Edwin sold Supreme, and of his farewell.
