Magic Is Fun was a bi-monthly "Independent Magazine for the Amateur Magician", published by D. Robbins & Company in New York, that ran from March 1946 - December 1947.

The first issue (of 100,000 copies) paid tribute to the Houdini and contributions by Paul Benov, Al Davids, Alan Stuart, Jerry Smith, Guy Deforest, Robert Orben and Robert A. Nelson. It also contained a piece on Al Flosso.

Some magicians and magic organizations were in an uproar about a magazine sold to the public. By the end of 1946, Dave Robbins decided that issue No. 4 would be the last one to be sold on newsstands and that future issues would only be sold through subscriptions and by Magic dealers.
