Roger Curzon is one of the UK's real hidden treasures in card magic. A creative mind like no other, Roger over the years has blown the minds of fellow magicians time and time again. Roger is a modest man but is well known to those around him as a true master of his art. This is the first release of a series of tutorial DVDs where Roger reveals for the first time the true inner workings of his prized repertoire.

The Main Effect: Your spectators are shown a red backed card on full view in a window envelope. They are then asked to pick a card from a blue backed pack which is signed and placed back into the pack. The red backed card is clearly pulled out of the windowed envelope. Your spectators will then be dumbfounded as the red card is turned around and they are shown that the red backed card that has been in view the entire time is THEIR signed card!

This DVD comes with everything you need to perform this effect right away. It comes ready with all the gimmicks already made up so you don't need to do anything just watch the DVD learn and perform. You get gimmicks also for a non sleight of
