erformer shows a scratch pad with all blank pages. He next takes a felt tip marker and begins writing words on the blank pages and tears them out one by one and hands the pages to spectators. Ironically, the good words, "LOVE", "JOY", "PEACE", "HAPPINESS", cannot be torn or destroyed. However, the unpleasant words, "HATE", "ENVY", "GREED", "ANGER", can be torn into little shreds immediately. The secret lies in the special paper of which the pads are made and only the performer has control of which sheet is able to be torn.
