

Fred Robinson's Coin in Tie / Interlude

Art-Nr.: _16907_ / GTIN: neu / Marke: Breese, Martin, Duffie, Peter

Snap, Crackle and Pop!
A Brief Interlude with
Fred Robinson

Portrait of Fred Robinson by Eric Mason

25,00EUR

inkl. 19% USt. zzgl. Versand

🚫 Nur noch ein Exemplar vorhanden!

Fred Robinson's Coin in Tie

Described by Peter Duffie

Please note that the text and images are copyright Martin Breese 2006

This simple coin vanish was Fred's favourite impromptu non-card close-up trick. It can be performed immediately upon request, regardless of the conditions. Lay people like it and in Fred's hands it always caught magicians. When asked to show a trick, Fred usually responded by asking, 'Would you mind if I showed you only half a trick?' When they agreed, he would ask for the loan of a 10p coin (the largest coin at that time though not quite as large as the old penny or half dollar) and proceed as follows:
