24,5 x 17 cm, 184 S., Editorial Frakson Magic Books, 1988, gebunden. Klappentext: "This book is an irreplaceable guide for those who aren't satisfied performing tricks and presenting puzzles. It is for those who want their audience to feel, to sense, the Magical Sensation. How do you learn to communicate this marvellous feeling? The reader will find the answer in this theoretical/ practical Method, which can be used in all branches of magic: stage, close-up, mentalism, etc. The book includes a variety of tricks and routines: with coins, slates, mental effects with cards and technical card magic. When you apply this theory to any trick, you will immediately discover new ways to produce the effect. Like the 20 new methods for doing Oil and Water that are clearly described in these pages."
