CardToon-artiger Daumenkino-Effekt: One of the printed angels on the back of a bicycle deck starts to ANIMATE like a cartoon....flies off its bicycle...reaches into a mysterious "angel zone" and drags out an animated "business card" that has the spectator's personal NAME printed on its FACE! A moment later the name is gone and the angel is back to normal. Your new magic buddy has no choice but to turn her life over to a higher power. You hesitate, then say "what the hey."
